EXPERIENCE OF THE MONTH

Bird Park, Chandigarh

Bird Park, also known as the Chandigarh Bird Park, is a popular destination for nature lovers and bird enthusiasts in the city. The park was inaugurated to provide a natural habitat for various bird species and to promote awareness about bird conservation. The main motive to build this place was to create awareness among the public towards bird conservation, especially the young minds on nature education, and its conservation

Bird Park, Chandigarh

The park, located in front of the Lake Sports Club entry near the Rock Garden of Chandigarh and close to the popular Sukhna Lake in Sector 1, Chandigarh, offers a unique opportunity for visitors to experience the avian world in a naturalistic setting. Home to a diverse range of bird species, both native and exotic, the park allows guests to observe various types of parrots, peacocks, and other birds in an environment designed to mimic their natural habitats. Lush greenery, water bodies, and well-constructed aviaries provide a sanctuary where birds can fly freely while remaining protected.

This park is not just a haven for birdwatchers but also serves as an educational resource. It focuses on educating visitors, especially children, about the significance of birds and the necessity of their conservation. Through close-up encounters, guests can learn about the behaviors and habitats of different bird species, fostering a deeper appreciation for wildlife.

Moreover, the park is equipped with facilities that enhance the visitor experience. It features walking trails and benches for relaxation, as well as informational boards detailing the bird species that inhabit the park. It is an ideal spot for photography enthusiasts who can capture the vibrant avian life against the backdrop of a beautifully maintained environment.
